

Zhao Yixin, Chairman of the Board of Directors, visited Shanghai Science and Technology Venture Capital (Group) Co., Ltd. for research and discussion

On March 18, 2021, Zhao Yixin, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, went to Shanghai Science and Technology Venture Capital (Group) Co., Ltd. ("Shanghai Science venture capital") to conduct research. Shen Weiguo, Party Secretary, Executive Director and General Manager of Shanghai Science venture capital, Director Tao Hongzhi, Chief Economist of Shanghai Jiaozhou University, Liu Muqun, Dean of Overseas Education College, Zheng Jinghui, Investment Director of China Baoyuan Investment Co., Ltd., member of the China Nuclear Investment Party Committee and Chief Accountant, Shi Yunfu participated in the research.

Zhao Yixin said that China Nuclear Investment is a wholly-owned subsidiary of China Nuclear Group, which is responsible for the transformation mission of the nuclear science and technology achievements of 23 research institutes of the Group, and that China Nuclear Investment in Shanghai established China Nuclear Tongsheng (Shanghai) Science and Technology Development Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "China Nuclear Co-creation"), which is in response to the strategic cooperation agreement between China Nuclear Group and the Shanghai Municipal Government, an important platform company that provides professional services for scientific and technological innovation, and hopes to cooperate with Shanghai Science and Technology Ventures in the transformation of scientific and technological achievements, technology transactions and other aspects of the national development strategy. Explore the reform and restructuring of state-owned enterprises and research institutes to promote the vigorous development of nuclear technology application industry.

Shen Weiguo introduced the basic situation of Shanghai Science venture capital and expressed his hope for further cooperation between the two sides in the future. He said that Shanghai Science and Technology Ventures is an important investment and financing platform for Shanghai's strategic emerging industries, and also one of the main implementing bodies for shanghai's construction of a center of scientific and technological innovation with global influence. Shanghai Science venture capital will work with China Nuclear Investment and China Nuclear Innovation to innovate the cultivation system, jointly promote the industrialization of high-tech achievements, and help Shanghai to build a global impact of science and technology innovation center.

Shanghai Science venture capital, Shanghai Jiao Jiao university overseas education college, China Nuclear Investment related departments to participate in the symposium.